Pursuant to a petition filed October 22, 2015, under Wis. Admin. Code §HA 3.03, to review a decision by the Rock County Department of Social Services in regard to FoodShare benefits (FS), a hearing was held on November 17, 2015, at Janesville, Wisconsin.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Petitioner (CARES # [REDACTED]) is a resident of Rock County.
2. Petitioner had a FS case for herself and children [REDACTED] and [REDACTED].
3. In August 2014, petitioner informed the agency that her son [REDACTED] would be going to college.

4. In 9/3/14, [REDACTED] was removed from the FS group.
5. Petitioner called back the agency on 9/19/14 and informed the agency that [REDACTED] was in a 2-year program that would lead to in-demand employment. The agency placed [REDACTED] back in the FS group.
6. In March 2015, [REDACTED] completed his own FS application and interview and the agency learned that [REDACTED] was actually attending college in the state of Illinois and lived at the college in a dormitory.
7. [REDACTED] was only in the home for some weekends from October 2014 through April 2015.

DISCUSSION

Under FS program rules, a student who leaves home to attend school may be temporarily absent from the home but is not eligible for FS on the basis of temporary absence:

3.2.1.2 Temporary Absence

Include in the household an individual temporarily absent from the household when the expected absence is no longer than 2 full consecutive calendar months past the month of departure. Some examples are absence due to illness or hospitalization, employment, and visits.

To be considered temporarily absent, one must meet ALL of the following conditions:

1. The individual must have resided with the food unit immediately before the absence,
2. The individual intends to return to the home, and the food unit must maintain the home for him/her,
3. If the absent person is a child, the caregiver of the absent child is responsible for the child's care and control when the child returns to the home, and
4. If the absent person is an adult , the adult must still be responsible for care and control of the child during their absence.

Attending school - Persons temporarily absent to attend a school is not a reason to remain included in the food unit.

Foodshare Wisconsin Handbook at § 3.2.1.2 (emphasis added). This rule controls the situation that occurred here and [REDACTED] was not eligible for FS as part of petitioner's household.

Petitioner at hearing was more concerned that she would be determined as having done something wrong. She seemed frustrated that the agency added [REDACTED] back into the FS case even though she had provided documentation that indicated that he lived in a dormitory. This action is not about culpability. The only question is whether the household received FS to which it was not entitled. It did. The amount must be repaid.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The agency did not err in determining the overpayment.

THEREFORE, it is

ORDERED

That this matter is dismissed.
